

R.E.M. Films

R.E.M. Films was established in January 2007 in Saratoga Springs, Utah. Founded by a Deaf individual, Lance Pickett. Lance spent many years learning the industry and developing creative skills in producing quality videos.

With today's technology, anyone's dream can be projected on the screen at any budget. Lance started out as an event videographer such as weddings. Over time his interest and creativity evolved through various categories such as corporation videos, commercials, and especially features. He uses the latest technology to achieve the best quality for the budget.

R.E.M. Films has produced popular series such as DeafPod, Viral Signs, and Wanna Bet?. Also several award winning short films such as The Blue Box, S.O.D.A. That!, Deaf vs Mafia, The Deaf Cow, Deaf and Addicted, Business as Usual, Where the Sky Ends, and many more.

It has been said: "If you've ever wondered where dreams come from... just look around. This is where dreams are made." R.E.M. Films represents a place where Deaf culture dreams are made.

Lance Pickett (2007)

More information can be found on the R.E.M F Films web site: www.remfilms.com

Credit given to Lance Pickett – 2012